

2010 Living in Multicultural Multi-faith Melbourne

Saturday 15th of May 2010 10.30 AM – 12.00 PM

@ Federation Square - BMW Edge (in the Alfred Deakin Building) as part of the 2010 Buddha's Day and Multicultural Festival

Audience Registration Form

Living in Multicultural Multi-faith Melbourne is a youth forum focused on the sharing of faith and the celebration of multi-faith and multiculturalism among the youth in Melbourne.

Speakers from different religious and cultural backgrounds will gather to present to the audience their way of living in Melbourne and provide an insight into their own religion and culture. This forum aims at providing a venue for the youth to discuss issues such as faith and culture and promotes understanding and tolerance across Melbourne.

Speakers of the forum are members from various multicultural youth groups and the Multifaith Multicultural Youth Network (MMYN), which is a youth network supported by Victoria Multicultural Commission (VMC) and Office for Youth (OFY). This group of youth provides advice to the Victorian Government on a range of youth-related multi-faith, multicultural issues and initiatives.

The presentation will be held and supported by the Victoria Multicultural Commission, the Centre for Multicultural Youth and Buddha's Light International Association of Victoria (BLIA VIC) – Young Adult Division during the 2010 Buddha's Day and Multicultural Festival at Federation Square.

For those who are interested in this forum, please fill in the form and return it to the address below.
